APRIL 25–28, 2011
KEY WEST, FLORIDA

Key West Gathering 2011

2011 Key West GT will begin on April 25th with a meet and greet at the Blue Marlin Hotel (Host Hotel again). The KWBCA will provide food and refreshment for the event.

Tuesday will be our annual Bocce Ball tournament. Voting will be held for the following, best car representing British Motoring spirit and best car representing NAMGAR In the afternoon we will be visiting the Audubon House and Tropical Gardens Museum, cost $10.00 per person

Wednesday we will be having a driving event in the morning and followed later in the day with the Key West British Car Club annual members meeting and officers' installation. We have a couple of positions open and will be providing an update on candidates and the position duties.

Thursday will be a pre-parade decorating event, our theme will be Parrots in Paradise, with judging following immediately afterwards for best decorated car and participant. We will also be awarding for the most miles driven, best KWBCA spirit award, and KW Gathering car awards being given. Immediately after the awards we will be participating in the 'Worlds Longest Parade' celebrating the Conch Republic Festival.

Friday is open for you to do things on your own or begin your journey back North.
